Leave and Time Off Policy

1. Purpose

Rest and time away from work are essential for health, wellbeing and good work. This policy describes the leave Corvane offers. Entitlements are shown for a full-time employee (40 hours per week) and are calculated pro rata for part-time employees. All leave is requested and recorded in PeoplePortal.

2. Annual leave

- Full-time employees receive 25 days of paid annual leave per calendar year, in addition to public holidays.
- After 5 years of service, you receive 1 extra day per year, and after 10 years, 2 extra days.
- Employees who join or leave during the year receive leave pro rata.
- Request leave of 3 or more consecutive days at least 2 weeks in advance. Your manager responds within 5 working days. Requests can only be refused for a business reason, such as too many team members being away at the same time.
- Everyone should take at least 2 consecutive weeks of leave once a year, to properly recharge.

Carry-over

You may carry over up to 5 unused days to the next calendar year. Carried-over days must be used by 30 June; after that date they expire, unless you could not take them because of long-term illness or parental leave. Unused leave is not paid out, except when you leave Corvane.

3. Public holidays

Public holidays follow the official calendar of the country of your employment contract. If you work temporarily from another country, your contract country's holidays still apply. The calendars for the Netherlands, Portugal and Poland are published on the intranet every December.

4. Sick leave

- If you are ill, inform your manager by phone or message before 09:30 on your first day of absence, or before the start of your shift if it starts earlier, and register the absence in PeoplePortal the same day.
- You do not need a doctor's note from Corvane for short absences, but local law may require one.

- If you are ill for more than 7 calendar days, the People Team will put you in touch with the occupational health service, which supports your recovery and return to work.
- Medical details are confidential. You do not have to tell your manager what your illness is, only how long you expect to be away and whether there is anything work-related to hand over.
- If you fall ill during annual leave, report it in the same way. The days you were ill are converted back into annual leave days.

5. Family leave

Type of leave	Entitlement	Pay
Birth parent leave	16 weeks	100% of salary
Partner leave (non-birth parent, including adoptive and same-sex parents)	6 weeks, to be taken within 6 months of the birth or adoption	100% of salary
Adoption and foster leave	6 weeks per parent	100% of salary
Additional parental leave	As provided by local law, until the child is 8	As provided by local law
Short-term care leave (caring for a sick family member)	Up to 10 days per year	100% of salary

Notify the People Team about birth parent leave at least 15 weeks before the expected due date, so a handover can be planned. On return from family leave, you can work with reduced hours for 4 weeks while being paid full salary (the "phased return").

6. Other paid leave

Situation	Paid leave
Death of a partner, child or parent	5 days
Death of a sibling, grandparent or parent-in-law	2 days
Your own wedding or civil partnership	2 days
Moving house	1 day per year
Volunteering for a registered charity	2 days per year
Jury service or acting as a witness in court	As long as required

Bereavement leave can be extended with annual leave or unpaid leave, in agreement with your manager.

7. Unpaid leave and sabbaticals

- Unpaid leave of up to 4 weeks can be agreed with your manager.
- After 5 years of service, you can request a sabbatical of up to 3 months of unpaid leave. Requests must be submitted at least 3 months in advance. Your job is guaranteed when you return, and pension contributions continue during the sabbatical.

8. Wellbeing support

- The Employee Assistance Programme (EAP) is available 24/7, free and confidential, for employees and their household members. It offers up to 6 free counselling sessions per issue per year, plus legal and financial advice.
- Corvane does not receive any information about who uses the EAP or why.

9. Recording and responsibilities

- Employees: request and record all leave and absence in PeoplePortal, and set an out-of-office message.
- Managers: approve requests fairly and on time, and make sure their team members actually take their leave.
- People Team: maintain PeoplePortal, answer questions (people@corvane.example) and make sure local law is applied.
